

Thomas H. Mug

Tom is an attorney with more than 45 years of experience in tax law with a focus on employee benefits, and business and estate planning. He has significant experience representing pension boards for municipal, fire district and housing authority retirement plans. He is a graduate of Boston College Law School and hold an LL.M. degree in taxation from Washington University School of Law. He is currently Of Counsel with Greensfelder , Hemker and Gale, P.C.

Tom has been a resident of the City of Frontenac for more than two decades. He and his wife of 45 years, Janet, have two children and two grandchildren. Tom is an avid cyclist as well as a pilot with a commercial license. He is a volunteer pilot for Angel Flight Central and provides services to clients of Volunteer Lawyers and Accounts for the Arts.