

Amy Boltzman is an attorney and received her J.D. Degree from Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. She practiced law for over 24 years at Friedman Weitzman & Friedman, P.C. with her primary practice in the area of family law. Amy is a board member with the Ladue Education Foundation & Alumni Association and previously served as Treasurer for the City of Frontenac.