

Kris Anderson has served as a volunteer for the City of Frontenac since 2015 and is currently a member of the Architectural Review Board. Kris retired as a construction executive after 33 years with McCarthy Building Companies, one of America's largest diversified contractors.

Kris has served as a Board member at Drury University, on the Board of Trustees, at Bellerive Country Club and on the Board of the Gateway PGA Reach Foundation. Kris is retired and concentrating on "giving back to a great community and nation".